For Companies Who Want Direct Access the Most Successful & Motivated Painting Contractors in the Nation

Dear Potential Partner,

Let's face it: The economy is a little rough and rocky these days. Inflation has reduced real income and painting contractors are looking for every tool and resource possible to save money, reduce risk and grow their business.

You may also find it more difficult to meet your own quarterly and yearly goals in this economic climate. That's why adding the 8th Annual Painting Profits Summit to your marketing calendar makes so much sense! There is nothing on earth more powerful than meeting potential clients face to face.

Here are a few facts about our attendees & our event...

- #1 – There will be 100+ painting companies in attendance with an average sales volume of $2,400,000.
- #2 – Attendees are highly motivated, educated & focused on business growth objectives.
- #3 – Because we limit our sponsors to 16 total, you never have to worry about our event turning into a “vendor fest” where there is one painter for every vendor. The ratios are in your favor.
- #4 – Our painting contractors are industry influencers. Other painters look to them for advice and recommendations on products and services.

Speakers Who'll Inspire, Educate & Motivate!
